

ONLINE SLE TRAINING Disaster Risk Management and Climate Change Adaptation Mainstreaming

Trainer: Mr. Martin Becher

Duration: 01- 05 March, 2021

Preliminary course programme

Time	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
	CHECK-IN (9:00 – 9:30 am)
9:30 am - 11:00 am CET	Welcome Getting to know each other and the online setting Objectives, expectations and agenda	Lead-in External input: The role of the German Foreign Ministry in Disaster Risk Management (tbc)	Lead-in Disaster- and Climate-related Scoping and Screening of Projects	Lead-in Climate and Disaster Risk Assessment	Lead-in Identification and Selection of Risk Reduction Measures
15 minutes break
11:15 am - 12:30 am CET	Introduction to Climate Change and Climate Change Adaptation	Role-play: Stop Disasters!	External Input: DRR/Climate change adaptation and the role of insurance mechanisms (Thomas Loster, former Chair of Munich Re Foundation)	External input: Risk Mapping with GIS (Dr. Fabian Löw, Federal Office of Civil Protection and Disaster Assistance)	Mainstreaming of Disaster Risk Management and Climate Change Adaptation
1 hour break
1:30 pm - 3:00 Pm CET	Introduction Disaster Risk Management Wrap-up of the day	Disaster- and Climate-related Scoping and Screening of Projects Wrap-up of the day	Climate and Disaster Risk Assessment Wrap-up of the day	Identification and Selection of Risk Reduction Measures	Wrap-up & evaluation of the course Closure
END
3:15 pm - 4:15 pm CET		Optional & informal "Virtual hangout": exchange among participants		Optional Opportunity for individual consulting with the trainer	